distribute multi-kilogram amounts of cocaine, a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance, which amounts of cocaine exceeded five (5) kilograms; that is, conspiracy to violate Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(a)(1).

I. OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The objects of said conspiracy were, among others:

1. To import large amounts of controlled substances into the District of Puerto Rico for further distribution in Puerto Rico.
2. To distribute large amounts of controlled substances, including cocaine, at various drug points (known as "puntos") for significant financial gain or profit.

II. MANNER AND MEANS USED TO ACCOMPLISH THE CONSPIRACY

The manner and means by which the defendants and co-conspirators would further and accomplish the objects of the conspiracy included, among others, the following:

1. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would purchase multi-kilogram quantities of cocaine at wholesale prices.
2. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and co-conspirators would sell the multi-kilogram quantities of cocaine at drug points ("puntos").
3. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the significant profits generated from the sale of controlled substances at drug proceeds would be delivered to [1] ANGELA AYALA-MARTINEZ.

I N D I C T M E N T

United States v. Angela Ayala, et al.

4. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and co-conspirators would conceal and store drug proceeds at the residences of various co-conspirators, known as "stash houses."

5. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and co-conspirators would attempt to avoid detection by governmental authorities by, among other means, placing properties in the names of third parties and bribing law enforcement officials.

III. ROLES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CONSPIRACY

It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would have different roles and would perform different tasks in furtherance of the conspiracy as follows:

A. LEADER

1. [1] ANGELA AYALA-MARTINEZ, also known as (aka) "La Señora," aka "La Vieja," was the leader and organizer of the drug-trafficking organization described in Counts One and Two of this Indictment. As the leader of the drug trafficking organization, she would lead, organize, control, and supervise other members of the conspiracy who would sell controlled substances at drug points located in and around Ponce, Puerto Rico. For example, the ANGELA AYALA organization controlled drug points in, among other locations, the "Santiago Iglesias" and "La Cantera" neighborhoods located in Ponce, Puerto Rico. ANGELA AYALA directed and supervised numerous subordinates whose principal tasks included: (a) supplying sellers with the drugs to be sold at drug points; (b) collecting the proceeds derived from the sale of illegal narcotics at drug points; (c) packaging drugs for sale at drug points; (d) providing protection to [1] ANGELA AYALA-MARTINEZ, the illegal narcotics being sold at drug points, and the drug trafficking proceeds; (e) selling narcotics at drug points; and (e) concealing the drug proceeds derived from the sales at drug points.

United States v. Angela Ayala, et al.

B. SUPPLIERS

[8] JORGE ALICEA SERRANO, aka "Jockey," and others were the persons who would receive large quantities of cocaine from Colombia, South America, and would sell said cocaine to [1] ANGELA AYALA-MARTINEZ, for later distribution at drug points.

C. RUNNERS

The roles of other members of the ANGELA AYALA drug trafficking organization were that of "runners." These runners would collect the significant proceeds derived from the drug point sales already completed by the sellers and would deliver those proceeds to [1] ANGELA AYALA-MARTINEZ. They generally acted as managers and supervisors of the operations at the drug points.

The following defendants and co-conspirators acted as "runners" within the conspiracy:

D. BODYGUARDS

[1] ANGELA AYALA-MARTINEZ also used bodyguards as part of her drug-trafficking organization described in Counts One and Two of the Indictment. Members of the conspiracy who acted as bodyguards included defendants and co-conspirators

[6] YOLANDA RUIZ, and
[28] PABLO DIAZ-MORALES, aka "Pablin."

E. CONCEALERS/GUARDIANS OF DRUG PROCEEDS

Other members of the conspiracy would further the objectives of the conspiracy by concealing and safeguarding the assets and profits obtained by the ANGELA AYALA drug trafficking organization. Members of the organization who acted as concealers and guardians of drug proceeds include defendants and co-conspirators

These corrupt law enforcement officials included Puerto Rico Police Officer

[5] FLORENCIO SANCHEZ DE LEON,
and Puerto Rico Corrections Officer
